The Greater Mooresville Chamber of Commerce has served the community since 1950. Governed by a Board of Directors elected by the membership, various committees oversee Chamber functions and annual events. The Chamber recognizes the Mooresvillian of the Year at the Annual Dinner and Community Recognition.

Our Community...

In 1824, Samuel Moore, a North Carolina Quaker, founded Mooresville with his wife, Eliza Worthington, a Methodist from Madison. Their religious denominations proved key to the early development of the town.

Mooresville's population grew from 200 in 1831 to 2,000 in 1900. Today, the estimated town population is nearly 12,000 and that of the Greater Mooresville area is 26,000.

In 1966, the town adopted the slogan, "Mooresville, Home of the Indiana State Flag," in honor of Paul Hadley, the flag's designer. Hadley was a well known artist and Mooresville resident for many years.
